Dear Marv,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you personally for the tremendous blessing that the services of your organization have been to the work of The Brooklyn Tabernacle. At a crucial time in our church history, Church Consulting Services stepped in to help us acquire the funds with which to purchase our newly renovated ministry center called the Downtown Learning Center.

Church Consulting Services assembled an outstanding team which dealt in a highly professional manner with the various legal and banking professionals involved in this very complicated deal. Your team was instrumental in providing a seamless transaction for us. They performed well above our expectations and it would be a pleasure to work with your organization in the future.

We pray the Lord's blessing on your family and continued success as Church Consulting Services continues to bless the body of Christ.

In His Service,

Pastor Jim Cymbala
